DONATE YOUR AIRMILES!

Airfares are a major expense for the ministry each year. If you have frequent flyer miles you wish to donate you could help Peter get to and from the places he preaches at little or no cost! We can also use the airmiles to buy tickets for pastors who would otherwise be unable to attend conferences. Contact us for details on making a transfer, if you can help.

No reminders are needed about the tough economic times we are all in! But PreVision Partnership has been surviving on 65% funding for 3 years! Please prayerfully

Dear Friends,

I have two trips in the next few months for which I would particularly appreciate your prayers.

In July, I will be in Brazil, teaching at a Congress on Evangelism and holding evangelistic meetings near Rio De Janeiro. Please pray that I would preach the Gospel clearly and that many would find new life in Christ.

In September, I will be in Scotland, teaching at The Heralds Trust Leadership Annual Conference. It was through friends of this ministry that I came to faith in Christ; and in the 1980's I worked for them for several years in evangelism. The Heralds Trust is led by Ian Leitch, a great friend, mentor and a member of PreVision Partnership's Board of Reference. It is a great privilege to teach at their leadership Conference. Please pray that I would have messages of encouragement from the Gospel for all the Conference sessions.

Enjoy reading and thanks for your prayers.

Yours,

Peter

Ministry Update

The winter and spring involved less overseas ministry for financial reasons but allowed for more local ministry. I was able to teach at local churches in the Atlanta area more consistently. Also, Becky and I were able to be on hand for several friends each going through a crisis of some kind and who had recently come to faith in Christ. This summer and fall involves a lot of travel for ministry trips but I will continue to preach in Atlanta when I am home. In addition to Brazil and Scotland, I will be in India (October 2009 and January 2010) for evangelistic meetings and pastors conferences, and in Greece and Israel leading PreVision Biblical Tours-with-a-Purpose (see below).

Greece or Israel for $1500!

I will be leading two Biblical Tours-With-A-Purpose with PreVision

consider supporting our work in world evangelism and encouraging pastors, Christian leaders, and missionaries. We are praying for another 35 Ministry Founding Partners to reach our 100+ total and become fully funded. PREVISION ANNUAL DINNER

Friday Evening
November 6th, 2009
Keep the date free! We'd love to see you there!

Partnership this Fall---Greece from November 8th-15th, 2009 and Israel from November 15th-22nd, 2009. And, yes, they can be combined! Prices are being finalized but are expected to be around $1,500 (£941 and €1,071) per tour for hotel, meals, guide, ground transport, etc. (excluding airfares). We have excluded airfares for simplicity and economy (participants will join us from the USA, Europe and Africa, many travelers can use airline miles programs and bargain airfares are plentiful). Please let us know if this interests you. Go to the PreVision Biblical Lands Tours webpage for latest information.

On The Home Front

Seems like a long time ago but we took a quick two day trip to North Carolina for some skiing in the winter. Now summer is upon us and we are all enjoying it in different ways:

- Fiona enjoys frequent trips to the pool (with friends), babysitting jobs, and many practices for her new competition cheer leading team.
- Colin is home from college and starts a new job next week.
- Becky has been supplementing the family income while subbing as a teacher in the local schools and hopes to be full time in the Fall.
- I still enjoy weekly soccer games in a nearby park and enjoy morning walks with Ginger the family dog. I also (finally!) applied for and received US citizenship in May this year. Easier travel with dual citizenship is a nice side benefit.
