PreVision Finances

We are still praying for another 45+ Ministry Founding Partners who will support our operational budget in 2008. We finished 2007 with donations at 80% of our budget --- an amazing total for the first full year of ministry. Becky and I covered the $20,000 shortfall with a Home Equity Line of Credit, but we can't do this again. Please help us

Dear Peter,

Teaching at the pastors conferences in India & Nepal reminded me why I started PreVision Partnership last year --- to make a difference in the world!

- These pastors and leaders are making a difference by sharing the Gospel, leading people to Christ, planting churches, and teaching believers --- often in the face of persecution and opposition!
- I am making a difference by providing encouragement through Bible teaching and training for such pastors and leaders!
- You can make a difference by praying for and supporting PreVision Partnership!

That is why we are PreVision Partnership. Thanks for your prayers and support in the partnership of the Gospel.

Yours,

Peter

Thank you to the many who responded to my prayer requests for the trip to India & Nepal. Things went very well despite many obstacles. I taught at two pastors' conferences and preached at several evangelistic events. Many pastors, evangelists, and church leaders were encouraged (see sidebar) and many people came to Christ. I was deeply touched listening to the joyful singing of so many believers who are committed to sharing the Gospel with their people. Believe me, your prayers were greatly appreciated! Perhaps that is why the team (from Hope & Help International, with whom I travelled) pressed on despite lost suitcases, a stolen passport, power outages, a distracting demon-possessed girl at some of the evangelistic events, recurring sickness (I still have a bad case of the infamous "Delhi-belly"), and a national strike in Nepal! This last disruption resulted in the conference being re-located to a different town on the Nepali/Indian border. But the team rallied and the conferences went ahead with no security problems whatsoever! THANK YOU FOR PRAYING!

Upcoming Trips

In 2008, our goal is teach and train 5,000 overseas pastors and leaders to lead evangelistically effective local churches AND be personally effective in relational evangelism. In addition to India and Nepal, teaching events have been scheduled by organizations in Greece, South Africa, and Thailand/China. My next major trip is to South Africa in June where I will teach at Pastors Conferences in the Cape area and speak at the South African Association Of Evangelists National Conference in Pietermaritzburg. Check other Calendar updates at www.previsionpartnership.com/Events. I am particularly looking forward to teaching conferences on "Rediscovering the Gospel: God's Power for Joyful Living" and "Hooked on Fishing: Influencing Others for Christ". If you want to book one of these conferences, let us know. I will also lead our Biblical Tours-with-a Purpose to Greece & Israel in Oct/Nov. 2008 (see www.previsionpartnership.com/Tours)
